Gentlemen

We have been referred to you by the Los Angeles Public Library regarding a water charm once possibly worn by our beloved Abraham Lincoln and about which we are trying to establish identity. In your response we thought might be found some mention of it or possibly a picture of it when in his possession.

This charm can be found among friends who have cherished it for years as having been given by the President to some one of his household, who in turn gave it to our friends. This was so many years ago that the transaction is not clearly known to the present generation.

If the charm is genuine it must

Mr. Charn to come into the possession of them. He would be most entitled to it and will appreciate any information you can give me.

Very truly yours

Mrs. Lucille Schindler

Dear Mrs. Schinker:

Dr. Warren is now on his annual speaking itinerary and will not return until the middle of March. I will call your correspondence to his attention at this time and you will hear directly from him as to the watch charm which you have in your possession.

Very truly yours,

MP

My dear Madam:

I regret the very late reply to your letter of February 9 with respect to the Lincoln watch charm. We have gone through our files here on clocks and watches associated with Lincoln and find no reference to the charm which you mention.

Very truly yours,
